

GRADUATES WILL NUMBER ABOUT 60

Rushville High School Seniors Close
Work and Prepare for Last
Week's Activities

CLASS DAY PROGRAM FRIDAY

Junior-Senior Reception Friday
Night, Baccalaureate Sunday and
Commencement May 29

Members of the graduating class of the Rushville high school were "resting on their oars" today, having completed their semester's work Wednesday evening. A comparatively small number of seniors had to take examinations today.

From now on until the commencement exercises Friday evening, May 29, the seniors will be engaged in festivities that attend the closing of schools, opening with the Junior-Senior reception at the Elks club Friday evening.

The class will number close to sixty and will be one of the largest, if not the largest, in the history of the Rushville high school. The class address will be delivered by the Rev. Benjamin J. Bush, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Lexington, Kentucky, who is recommended as a public speaker of great ability. The commencement will be held at the Graham Annex auditorium.

The other outstanding event in the commencement week events is the baccalaureate services, which will be held at the Main Street Christian church Sunday evening. All churches will join in the service and the Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will deliver the sermon. Special music will be provided by Homer Cole's orchestra and Miss Helen Jaehne will sing.

The seniors will have their final contact with school rooms Friday afternoon when the annual class day exercises and the graduates that are to be will "strut their stuff" before the study body at 2:15 in the Annex auditorium. Immediately following the holiday, the high school annual which is issued by the graduating class, will be distributed. By those who have seen it, the book is regarded as probably the best ever put out by Rushville high school.

For the underclassmen, school will take up as usual next Monday morning in the afternoon exemption cards will be distributed. Final examinations will be held Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday schools will be dismissed while teachers make up grades. On Friday reports will be given out. The same program will be followed in the grades.

WILL CONTEST INVOLVES ESTATE OF JAMES GRAY

William H. Gray and Others Allege
Document Was Fraudulently Executed in 1917

PLAINTIFFS WERE CUT OFF

A complaint to contest the will of an estate valued at $15,000 was filed in the circuit court today by William H. Gray and others against Vincent Gray and others, and involving the estate of James Gray.

The complaint alleges that James Gray died May 25, 1924, and his will was recorded in court and Vincent Gray appointed administrator. The plaintiffs allege that they are heirs at law to their portion of the estate, and are not mentioned in the will.

They charge that the will, dated in 1917, was made under undue influence, was fraudulently executed, and that the deceased was of unsound mind and easily influenced when the will was made. The action is to have the court set aside the will, and order the distribution among the heirs pursuant to the laws of descent.

Another complaint was filed today by Walter Epsweiser against Albert L. Allen and Sam Young, the action being on a contract resulting from a threshing agreement between the parties, and in which the plaintiff alleges there is due him from the defendants the sum of $65.

DEPARTMENT PREVENTS SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE

Roof of Cottage Hotel, Fourth and
Morgan Streets, Catches Fire
From Sparks

NO DAMAGE DONE BY WATER

A roof fire at the Cottage Hotel, Fourth and Morgan streets, caused a loss of probably $100 this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and only quick action by the fire department prevented a more serious loss.

The blaze started from sparks when trash was being burned in the furnace. The fire centered around a dormer window above the second floor, and the dry shingles were burning rapidly over the roof, when it was discovered.

The pumps make a quick run to the place and the booster hose line was used. The other pump laid a line from the hydrant to supply the booster tank, and in this manner the fire was extinguished without any loss resulting from water.

The building is owned by Ed Beer, and insurance will cover the loss. A similar fire, only of much less serious consequence, started in the roof several months ago.

ABOUT 70 PER CENT FOR ROADS, SCHOOLS

Spring Distribution of Taxes Shows
$340,238.86 Being Used for
These Two Purposes

OVER HALF MILLION DIVIDED

County Receives Meagre Sum of
$26,113.25 to Pay Expenses and
State $78,306.11

Over a half million dollars in taxes, representing the amount collected since the fall collection in 1924, is distributed in the June distribution which has just been completed in the county auditor's office and was approved Wednesday when taken to the state auditor in Indianapolis by Harry Myers, county auditor.

The distribution was completed earlier this year than ever before, and was the second in the state to be finished. A small county in southern Indiana was the first to finish the semi-annual task. May 23 was the earliest date previously that the settlement was ever completed in the auditor's office here.

Contrary to the general opinion among taxpayers that most of the taxes go to the state and county, the vast majority is for schools, roads and local governments.

The county receives out of the spring collections the meagre sum of $26,113.25, which is for county officers' salaries and office supplies, maintenance of the county infirmary and upkeep of the court house and jail.

The state actually receives only $78,306.11. Almost seventy percent of the taxes collected go to roads and schools.

The sum distributed was $505,957.81. Of his amount $496,614.88 was collected on the spring installment and the balance $9,342.93, was delinquent taxes collected since the last settlement in December.

Schools and roads in the county receive $340,238.86, divided $159, Continued on Page Six

VILLAGE BELLE EXONERATED

Coroner's Jury Finds Riverdale, Ill.,
High School Girl Guiltless

Riverdale, Ill., May 21—A Coroner's jury here this afternoon exonerated Lucille Wunsch, 16 year old "Belle of Riverdale" for the killing of Agnes Simnick, 28, who it is alleged attempted to break up the Wunsch home.

Although finding that Lucille killed her mother's rival, the jury decided that death was accidental. The school girl's testimony at the inquest which lasted three hours, brought about this decision.

"I did not mean to kill her", Lucille testified. "I did not know the gun was loaded. I only wanted to scare her."

TWO SENIORS TO BE GIVEN AWARD

B. D. Farthing, County School Superintendent, Receiving Recommendations of Principals

SCHOLARSHIPS IN I. U.

Represent Amount Equal to Contingent
Fees First Year—Six Have
Profited From Them

Two seniors in the schools of Rush county will be given scholarships to Indiana University within a few days, and as soon as the grades of the graduates can be looked over by B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent, who is authorized to make the appointments.

At the present time there have been six Rush county students given such scholarships, with Pearl Macy and Vera Reynolds completing their first year now on such certificates. The other four who have attended, or are now attending Indiana University, and were given Freshmen scholarships, include Milo Aiken, Garrett Reynolds, Florence Flechart and Mary Wilson.

The principals of the schools in the county have received letters from Indiana university calling attention to the fact that two pupils from Rush county are eligible, and each principal can recommend some one from his Senior class to the county superintendent. Mr. Farthing now has several applications on file and will determine the successful applicants in a few days.

The scholarships are for the Freshman year, and have a value of $60, an amount equal to the contingent fees for the year.

Dean David A. Rothrock in his letter to the principals stated that "the law requires that the scholarships be granted to the two students in each county having the highest general average in the entire high school course."

"To avoid appointment of those who are not likely to make high grade records at the University," writes Dean Rothrock to the high school executives, "the aid and co-operation of the principals and superintendents are requested. Please announce to your high school pupils that those scholarships are available, and assist in obtaining high appointments from your county."

"Not all appointees to county scholarships in the past have made creditable records in the University. For the current year 153 appointments were made, 11 of whom did not continue."

Americans Help Celebrate Come Back Of Beer

Province of Ontario Makes Merry
Over First Sales of 4.4 Per Cent
Beer Now Permitted by Law and
Thousands Flock Across the Border

(By United Press)

The province of Ontario made merry today over the first sales of 4.4 percent beer now permitted by law.

From Ottawa to Windsor, border cities and towns, range within the sound of the celebration from which the presence of American visitors were by no means missing.

The new beer was officially termed "non-intoxicating and refreshing" but Ontario thought differently and determined to convince its American neighbors of the attractiveness of the beverage. Reports said 50,000 visitors are expected.

Meanwhile the United States tightened its border patrols to prevent an overflow of this 4.4 percent beer into the states below the border. With the rum fleet off New York scattered and blocked in its smuggling operations, bootleggers were expected to turn their attention to the border country.

CHRISTIAN FOX, 85, DIED THIS AFTERNOON

Well Known Resident of This City,
Had Been in Serious Condition
Since Last September

Christian Fox, age 85 years, a well known citizen of this city, died this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at his home, corner of First and Pearl streets, death resulting from a long illness with diabetes and complications.

Mr. Fox was born in Brunswick, Germany, and came to this city 64 years ago. Several months ago he was taken ill, and had been bedfast since last September, with his condition gradually growing worse.

He is survived by the widow by a second marriage, and two daughters, Mrs. Helen Garrett and Mrs. Louis Cohoe of this city. He also leaves three step-sons, Glen Sommer of this city and James F. Somerville of Racine, Wis., and J. O. Somerville of St. Louis.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city. The funeral arrangements were not completed today and will be announced later.

MANY PRINCIPALS WILL NOT RETURN

Several Changes in Executives in
Rush County Schools Will Take
Place Next Year

NUMBER TO LEAVE COUNTY

Glenwood, Raleigh, Webb, Milroy,
Center and Richland Schools Will
Have New Heads

Several changes in the executive positions of the schools of Rush county will be made for the new school term next fall, it was announced today at the office of B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent. The changes affect the principalship of many township and elementary schools.

New principals will be employed for the Glenwood and Raleigh schools. Paul Royalty, who was principal this year at Glenwood, and Blythe Seales at Raleigh, have each resigned and will attend Indiana University next fall in order to complete their work and receive their A. M. degree.

The appointment of Charles Ruby, a Carthage resident, for the principalship of Glenwood, has been made, and Mr. Stafford, principal of the Bentonville school in Fayette county, has resigned his position there, to become the new principal at Raleigh.

Vernon Klipsch, principal at Webb, will not return next year, but will probably accept a position in Johnson county, it was stated today. His successor for Webb has not been obtained.

J. P. Sauter, principal this year at Milroy, will leave, and it was stated that Lyle Power of Milroy, formerly principal there, and who has been attending Harvard University, will be back again next year at Milroy as principal.

F. C. Landrus, principal at Center, who lives in Hancock county, has resigned to take up the principalship for the school at Westland, which is near his home. For this vacancy, Dudley Campbell, assistant principal at Raleigh, has been named, and he will be transferred by the promotion.

Roy Banta, who has been in charge of the two room school at Richland, will not return next year, as he is leaving the teaching profession, and will take up farming near Warsaw, Ind. The vacancy has not been filled at this school.

Glen Crawley of Clarksburg has been appointed principal of the

PATRIOTIC BODIES TO ATTEND SUNDAY SERVICE

The Rev. B. F. Cato Will Preach Annual Memorial Sermon at Main
Street Christian Church

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS MADE

All patriotic orders of Rushville were asked today by the committee in charge of the annual Memorial Day program, to attend the services Sunday morning at the Main Street Christian church.

At this time the annual Decoration Day sermon will be preached by the Rev. B. F. Cato, pastor of the church. Civil War veterans will attend in a body, and reservations will be made at the church for all patriotic orders which will attend.

The Memorial Day sermon on Sunday will be followed by the annual program on Decoration Day, May 30, when the graves of the soldiers of all wars will be decorated in the cemeteries of this city. There will be short exercises in connection with Memorial Day, and the usual parade of patriotic organizations and school children will be made at that time. The sermon to be preached Sunday is also an annual event, and is held on the Sunday prior to Decoration Day.

NEW VENIRE CALLED IN SHEPHERD TRIAL

Atmosphere Charged with Rumors
of Plot and Counter Plots as
Jury Selection Goes On

FIRST PANEL NEARLY GONE

Search for Robert White, Missing
Star Witness, Grows Intense—
Trace of Him Lost

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 21—The atmosphere charged with rumors of plot and counter plots to bribe and tamper with jurors and witnesses, 200 new veniremen were called today in attempts to secure a jury to try William D. Shepherd on the charge that he murdered Billy McClintock.

The first panel of 100 prospective jurors neared exhaustion and still no juror was permanently accepted. The second panel was summoned at once in order to prevent delay.

Most of the jurors were dismissed because they had formed opinions as to Shepherd's guilt or innocence through the wide publicity given to the case. Many others were excused by the state because they objected to giving the death penalty.

Search for Robert White, missing star witness for the prosecution, became intense today. Detectives returned from St. Joseph, Mich., with information that a couple had registered at a hotel there under the name of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Olson, of Topeka, Kans. They have since left, their destination unknown.

Authorities said they believed this couple was White and his wife. White and his family disappeared from their home here leaving word that they were going away until after the trial.

DECLAMATIONS ARE REPEATED

Four Winners in High School Contest Before Kiwanis Club

Four high school orators, winners in the Mansfield Declamation contest held Monday night, appeared before the Kiwanis club at their weekly luncheon today noon, and gave their orations.

The four who were presented to the club members were Miss Olive Logan, winner of first prize, who spoke on "The Other Fellow," an oration by William Hawley Smith, and the other three speakers were Frank Green, Jr., Miss Kathleen Hobbs and Edith Claire Walden. The orations were well given, and won much applause from the club members.

Robert Mansfield, sponsor of the declamation contest which is to be an annual affair among high school pupils, gave a short talk preceding the introduction of the four youthful orators.

CEMETERY PLATS MUST BE FILED

New Law Compels all Associations
Selling Burial Lots, to Have Plats
Properly Recorded

GIVEN 6 MONTHS TO COMPLY

After That Time, if Plats are Not
on File, it is Unlawful to Dispose of Any Lots

Miss Eleanor B. Sleeth, county recorder, called attention today to an act of the 1925 general assembly which requires all cemetery associations, properly filed on the plat book the same as any addition to an incorporated town or city.

In looking over the plat book, it was estimated that about one-half of the burial associations in Rush county have had their plats recorded, and under the new law, which makes it compulsory, a period of six months is given to have the land properly described on the plat book.

The law states that after the six months period expires on October 31 it will be unlawful for any cemetery association to sell a lot, and a violation of the law carries a fine of not less than $100, which may be increased to $500, and every thirty days thereafter in which the association has failed to comply with the law, constitutes another offense.

In addition to the plat book record, section 5 of the new law creates a new business for the county recorder. This section provides that it shall be the duty of the recorder to provide a book in which to record all cemetery deeds and such book shall be designated as the county cemetery records. In the past, all lot deeds in cemetery associations, are listed in the regular records with other property.

The only cemetery associations that can evade this new law, are those containing less than five acres of land, and those associations which have not sold a lot during the past 15 years, but in case such associations should resume selling lots then the plat must be recorded, the same as any other association.

The plat book in the office of the county recorder fails to show some of the most important and large cemeteries of Rush county, it was disclosed today, because there was never any law to compel the filing of the original plat.

It is estimated that there are probably two dozen associations in the county. Some of those recorded and properly platted with all additions, are the Raleigh cemetery, Zion, Arlington, Riverside, and Ebenezer cemetery.

The original plat of an addition to the Milroy cemetery was destroyed by fire, and there is fre-

FORGED CHECK FOR $100 IS DISCOVERED

Man Uses Fictitious Names and
Rushville Address and Bank to Obtain Money

CASHED IN ANOTHER CITY

The Farmers Trust company today received word of a $100 forged check which was drawn on the local bank in favor of "Aldy Nire," 221 North Perkins street, Rushville, and was cashed by a bank in a neighboring city.

The bank cashing the check discovered it was a forgery when the check came back from the Rushville bank marked "no funds" and an investigation here disclosed that the names used were fictitious. The street address was that of the Daily Republican office.

The check was signed by "Frank Baynards." Neither of the names is listed in the city directory here and no one recalls ever having heard such names before.

"Nire" claimed he worked for "Baynards," according to the report received by the Farmers Trust Company. He is said to have had the appearance of being a garage workman. The handwriting was very poor and it was with difficulty that the names were made out. The check was dated May 9, 1925.

WAS NOT FIT TO DO HER WORK

Dreadful Condition of Mrs. Fullerton's Health Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Clearfield, Pa.—"I cannot begin to tell you how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me in every way. Before taking it I couldn't stand on my feet without pains running all through my whole body from my waist down, just like threads pulling. I was not fit to do any work. My mother got me to try the Vegetable Compound and I have found great benefit, and I not only recommend it for such troubles, but to build up the whole system. I have used it for most everything that gets wrong with me. When I begin to feel nervous and irritable I don't stop long in getting a bottle of the Vegetable Compound if I haven't got one in the house. It gives a fine appetite and makes a new woman of me. You may use this testimonial in my own town or anywhere else, and I will answer any letters I receive." — Mrs. RUSH FULLERTON, 525 S. 2nd Street, Clearfield, Pa.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

There is, on said premises, an orchard, cherry trees and grape vines. Also, the following real estate in Walker Township, Rush County, Indiana, to-wit: The southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of Section fourteen (14), Township thirteen (13) north, Range eight (8) east, and the west half of the northeast quarter of Section twenty-three (23) in said township and range, and containing 120 acres, more or less.

The last above described real estate consists of a good, productive farm, located within three quarters of a mile of the town of Manilla, Indiana, which provides a shipping point over the Pennsylvania Railroad, and a consolidated grade and commissioned high school.

The buildings consist of a five-room house with cellar, a double corn crib, a cow stable, a hog barn, a poultry house, a garage, a smoke-house and other outbuildings. There is a small woods pasture on the place, and the farm is well supplied with good water, there being four wells.

The farm is bounded on two sides by good gravel road, the soil is productive and fertile, the buildings are substantial, and the entire place presents an attractive appearance.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of the Rush Circuit Court, for not less than the full appraised value of said real estate, and upon the following

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The first described tract will be sold with the purchaser paying one-third the purchase price, cash in hand on day of sale; the unpaid purchase price to be evidenced by two promissory notes, of the purchaser, of equal amounts, bearing 6 per cent. interest from date, waiving relief, and secured by first mortgage upon the premises sold, and due in six and twelve months, respectively. MODERATOR MAKES
OPENING ADDRESS

Dr. C. E. Macartney, Who Retires
as Head of General Presbytery Assembly, Opens Convention

IN SESSION AT COLUMBUS, O.

His Theme of "Reconciliation Through Christ," Opens Modernist-Conservative Argument

Columbus, O., May 21—The war of the Conservatives (Fundamentalists) and the Radicals (Modernists) began with the opening of the annual General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. here today. The first shot was fired by the retiring moderator, Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney of Philadelphia, Pa., in his annual sermon opening the session. His theme was "Reconciliation Through Christ."

Macartney was elected moderator in 1924 as a conservative on the direct issue.

The speaker rejected the "literary Jesus" and said that on the answer to the question "Who is Christ?" Depended the truth or falsehood of the Christian faith. He continued.

"The tremendous answer of St. Paul, of the New Testament, is that God was in Christ. The history of the Christian Church can display no sadder spectacle than the present day tendency to explain our Lord Jesus Christ in the terms of exalted humanity only. With what Paul called 'good words and fair speeches' men who have never really bowed before the Son of God as Redeemer have 'deceived the hearts of the simple' and rhetorical Jesus who never existed and who is unable to deliver from sin and death."

Commenting on the modern church Dr. Macartney said:

"The chief trouble with our churches today is that nobody is a sinner any more. From our pulpits we hear much of the divinity of man and a great deal about vision, courage, service, community obligation, and how to abolish war, but almost nothing of sin, old fashioned, Scriptural, uneducated, unevolved, undecorated, God-defying death-deserving, soul destroying sin. Yet to deal with that kind of sin Christ came into the world."

"Too many have delected sin from their hymn books and Bibles and conscience, and yet try to find still some meaning in the Christian religion."

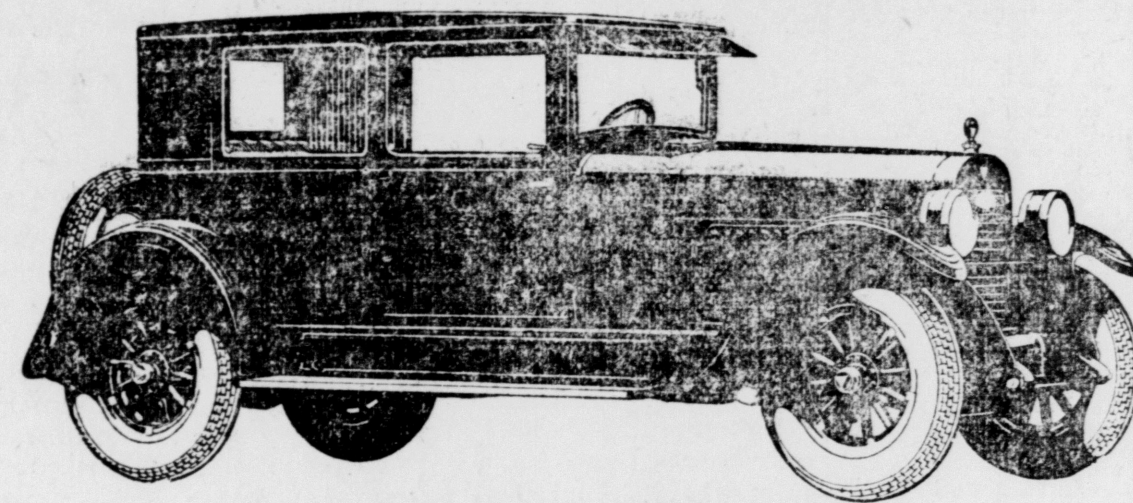

Dr. Macartney said the great point in the Christian religion was that Christ died to save sinners and asked:

"Is the Church now to forsake its 'first love' and preach to a lost and fallen humanity the merits and virtues of human nature, in place of the atoning and saving work of Christ as the only Redeemer from sin? Where the offence of the Cross has ceased, there the Gospel has ceased and the Church has vanished. So we might have great cathedrals, and eloquent human speech and singing which would cause Gabriel himself to hang his head in silence, and the hum and rumor of classes and organizations, and much stained glass, and great ecclesiastical conventions, and great men's classes requiring special trains to transport them:—and with it all, no offense of the Cross, no Gospel!"

"Because some college student does not like the bitter-sweet of the doctrine of Calvary and the atonement, therefore we are told to leave it out of our preaching. Because some other man cannot stand the miracles of Jesus, therefore let us preach a Christ who did no miracles, that is, a Christ who never existed. Because some other 'modern mind' cannot endure the resurrection, therefore let us speak of the resurrection of Jesus as if it meant only some evidence of his continuing personality!"

"So far has this shameful accommodation and this cowardly acquiescence in the world's unbelief been carried in some quarters, that Paul and John and Peter would never recognize what is called a Christian sermon in some places today as the tremendous doctrines which they preached and which turned the world upside down. God save our churches from becoming lighthouses whose light has been quenched, or, what is even worse, lighthouses which flash and glow with false lights to deceive and lure to destruction the pilgrims on life's stormy sea!"

"It may be that God 'has a controversy' with his Church, and that even darker days are ahead of us. It may please him to sift our churches and discover how many there are in our midst who know and honor Jesus as King and Redeemer."

I do not dread controversies, divisions, separations, and persecutions, for they serve to discover who is on the Lord's side. It may be that the present drift away from the Cross will sweep many more thousands away from a true faith, and that the good words and fair speeches of the heralds of a pseudo and man-made Christianity are to deceive even the elect. God alone knows, and the Church is in His hands."

Great and True:—Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect for all his ways and judgment a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he. Deuteronomy 32: 3, 4.

Prayer:—Our God and Father, Thou are our shadow from the heat, and shelter from the storm, water in the wilderness, the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

The City Primary

Every vote cast in the Rushville city primary cost forty-two cents. This would have been materially reduced if the participation in the primary by the voters had been more general, because all of the voters could have been accommodated at the same expense.

It is not the expense that should be the deciding factor in weighing the primary. If through his system, voters were influenced to go to the polls and take a whole hearted interest in the selection of their party tickets, it would be worth whatever it cost.

But the primary does not do what it advocates said it would do when it was made a law in Indiana. The primary was supported by some of the best minds in the belief that it would produce better results than the representative system; that it might bring the people nearer to their government; that it might arouse in them a keener desire to know more of their office holders and that it might create a wider and more intense public interest in the methods by which the people are governed.

The same men and women who were so strong in their advocacy of the direct primary have been disillusioned; they have seen that the practical application of the primary theory is not satisfactory. Many former vigorous advocates have frankly changed their views and are now willing to change to the caucus and convention method or to any other safe, consistent and economical system that will insure the selection of honest persons of sound judgment and known ability.

This should not be construed as a reflection on the honesty, integrity or ability of any candidate. But it happens so often that the best qualified men for office are defeated through a coalition of interests not in favor of good government, who resort to the tricks commonly used in the primary.

It is now recognized as a fact that among persons seeking office, the most enthusiastic advocates of the primary are those who appreciate that they would have little or no chance to win before a convention, the delegates to which knew them and what they represented, as those delegates would be likely to know.

The founders of the American republic sought to establish and did establish a representative government. They believed that the best results would come from the selection of governing officials by representatives of the people who would be chosen by the people. In other words, that the wisest procedure was for the people to select delegates, these delegates to select the persons who were to serve the people.

The direct primary system has taken us far afield from this fundamental principle upon which the Fathers built a representative form of government. Many of our present-day political ills, made manifest by dishonest public officials, who have caused many people to lose faith in government, may be traced to the direct primary, which has put the demagogue in the saddle and displaced reason.

Civic Improvements

Every Rushville citizen interested in seeing Rushville get ahead as it should, will applaud the work of the present city council in ever endeavoring to advance civic improvements. The council has a number of successful projects to its credit, and before leaving office, it proposes to add a few more.

The council has ordered the erection of a bandstand in Memorial park, the construction of curb and gutter in Eleventh street and will carry the remodeling of the city building to a successful conclusion.

This is as it should be. No sane reason can be given for not having city property just as respectable and decent looking as private property. No self-respecting individual would have permitted his property to deteriorate as the city building has. It should have a modern front, as the council proposes to install, and the adjoining hayloft should be remodeled so that it may be used by the city authorities. Also, the firemen are entitled to livable quarters, which they will have when the remodeling is finished.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Herbert Quick, the writer and ex-member of the Federal Farm Loan Board, who died recently, was even more interesting face to face than in his extremely interesting books. I had an office with him for awhile during his early days as a lawyer in Iowa, was his secretary as mayor of Sioux City, and he took dinner at my house, here in Washington, not many days before his death.

He was just starting to write his memoirs. Indeed, he came into the capital, from his home at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., to talk over with me some of his adventures in which I myself had a share.

Quick had known no end of celebrities and eccentricities, had had a hand in a lot of important and unusual happenings and told his experiences in the queerest way. He looked at them from an angle all his own—not a bit like any other angle.

At the proper age for it, he had had infantile paralysis which left him, not crippled, but with a noticeable peculiarity of gait. Infantile paralysis, he contended, was a very valuable thing to have had—it greatly strengthened and improved the intellect, provided the patient lived.

He didn't say that nobody became great who hadn't had it, but he did insist that practically everybody who did have it became great. Or possibly only the potentially great were subject to it. He wasn't sure which.

He was very proud of the fact that crooks and criminals of every variety had an instinctive liking for him.

It was true they did. He was brought in contact with all the shady saloon men, dive keepers, gamblers and miscellaneous bad characters in town during the period of his Sioux City mayoralty and they were pretty plenty there then—and every one of them took to him at first sight.

It wasn't that he did anything to win their kindly regard. They simply gave it to him unasked. Even when he closed them up, they spoke well of him just the same.

He didn't like crime, he said, but he condoned a reasonable amount of vice. Within bounds, he explained, though reprehensible, he considered it the vicious individual's own affair.

PROBABLY this attitude was what endeared him to the liberal element. It didn't endear him to puritans, however, and one term as mayor was all he got out of three candidacies—and the first one, before the liberal-minded better part of the citizenry had found out what kind of character they subsequently thought he was. His humor was too subtle for much success in politics.

As I say, I knew him very well. I think this is the sort of eulogy he'd like. And I'm sorry the world never will see his memoirs.

STRONG CONTENDER IN MILE

Phillips Expected to Show Well in Conference Meet in June

Herman Phillips, former Rushville high school athlete, who has been winning laurels for Butler college during the spring track season, will be a strong contender in the Western Conference meet at Ohio State university, Columbus, early next month.

He is regarded as practically a sure winner in the mile, providing Shimok of Marquette does not enter. The Marquette entry, if he runs, is the choice of most sport writers, although it is admitted Phillips will give him a race.

Phillips is almost one of the most dependable members of the Butler relay team, which is expected to figure among the leaders in this event at the meet.

Chicago—Stanislaus Zbyszko had little trouble tossing Ivan Zaiken to the mat in their bout at the Coliseum here last night. He took the first fall in 9:53 with a flying mare, and the second with a crotch hold and half nelson in 5:05.

Evanton—By serving up a hot tennis game in the doubles, Northwestern University trimmed the Iowa rageters in a Big Ten match here yesterday 4 to 2.

Scott's Feat Great

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, May 21—Count on the men in your acquaintance, who are engaged in a fairly laborious profession and figure how many of them have not missed a day in the office or in the shop for three years and a half. Perhaps you can point out five or six, maybe more, maybe less and perhaps none at all.

The fewer you know who have not been stricken with illness for three years and a half, who have not been disabled and rendered unfit for duty or who have not taken one day off to go hunting or fishing, the more you will appreciate the remarkable record of Everett Scott, the veteran deacon who has been playing shortstop for the New York Yankees.

On June 20, 1916, Mike McNally, who was playing shortstop for the New York Yankees, was taken out of the lineup to let a pinch hitter bat for him and Scott was sent to his position to play the rest of the game. From that day until May 6, 1925, Scott didn't miss a game and when he was finally benched he had made a record of playing in 1,307 consecutive games, not counting the game in four world's series that he did not miss.

Some ball players will tell you that Scott's record deserves full credit and a prominent place on the list of those stars who have done something real big in baseball, but they will tell you—not for publication—that Scotty was foolish to do it.

"Why burn yourself out for any record? Why give a substitute the life of Riedly on the bench or keep a substitute out of a job? A well known player said a few days ago, 'There's no sentiment in baseball. They'll keep you in the game as long as they need you, but when you're through they look for a spot where they can send you and get the best bargain for someone else. That record didn't do Scotty any good. When he slowed up too much they benched him and sent in a kid. He wouldn't have slowed up so soon, if he hadn't burnt himself up after that record. Maybe he could have had two or three more good years in the game. But when he's through, he'll have to go to the minors. Down in the bushes they don't pay on records. They pay on how much ground a fellow can cover and how many hits he can get. We all like Scotty. There isn't a better fellow in baseball, but baseball is a business where it's every fellow for himself and where a fellow has to take care of his own end. I'm not going in for any records. I'm going to save myself so I can make a big league salary just as long as I can.'"

Twenty bases on balls were handed by six wild pitchers in a weird game taken by the White Sox from the Red Sox 10 to 7.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Tris Speaker, Cleveland manager, went clear around from first base on an ordinary single and scored the run in the ninth inning that beat the Yankees 10 to 9. Five hits and two passes scored the six runs for the Indians in the final frame.

George Kelly's homer in the first inning with two on base put the game on ice for Zeke Barnes and the Giants beat the Cubs, 6 to 1.

Cobb's triple in the eighth inning started a rally that resulted in four runs and the Tigers downed the Senators 7 to 3.

Four pitchers were pounded for nine runs in the sixth inning and the Reds mauled the Braves 15 to 9.

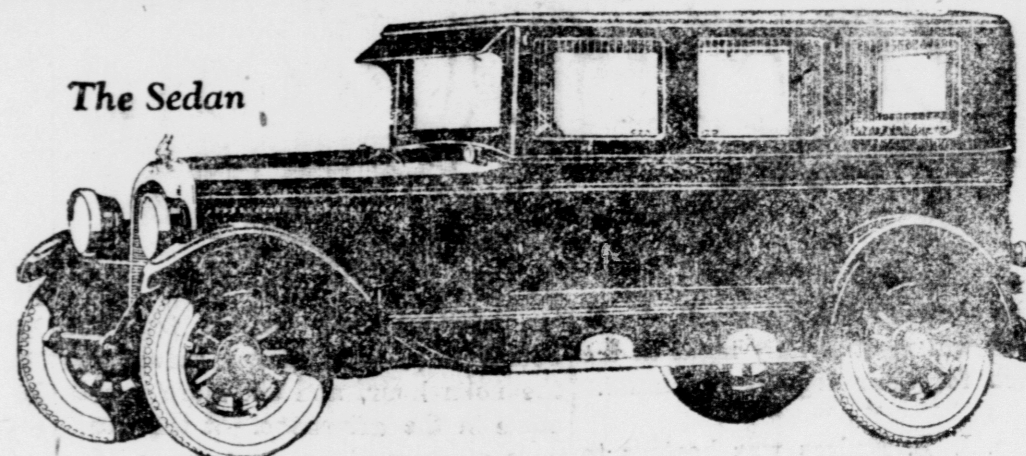

For the first time since the season started, George Sisler failed to hit safely and the Athletics beat the Browns, 8 to 6. Ken Williams hit a homer with the bases loaded.

Three runs scored on a rally in the eighth inning and a homer by Wrightstone in the sixth gave the Phillies an 8 to 4 victory over the Cardinals.

Pounding four pitchers for 22 hits, the Pirates cleaned the Robins 12 to 3.

Results Plus Stamina That Compel Consideration

There is no car that so clearly compels first consideration as the Chrysler Six—

By right of results delivered by no other car, by right of unparalleled economy, by right of wonderful roadability made still more wonderful by effective stabilizers, and by right of noteworthy stamina.

The remarkable dependability and endurance of the car are not matters of chance.

They are, of course, the result of the most painstaking effort and determined purpose.

Chrysler results are delivered unfailingly and with continued brilliance for tens of thousands of miles, and it is that fact that accounts for the car's ever-growing popularity, almost as much as the results themselves.

Let us demonstrate these results for you and explain in greater detail why owners say the Chrysler Six is the best built car on the market today.

Chicago—Julius Sagalowski of Butler college, Indianapolis, and Donovan of Notre Dame are favored to win the Big Ten invitation teams championships which open a three day session on the U of Chicago courts today. Jerome of Michigan, Hunter of Ohio State and Goodwillie of Illinois are other outstanding entrants.

South Bend—Osaka Mainichi of Japan defeated Notre Dame's baseball team here in a tightly contested 10 inning battle yesterday 2 to 1.

Chicago—Jack Williams, Inglewood Calif., high school pole vaulter is the latest entry for the Stagg national inter-scholastic meet to be held June 5 at the U of Chicago. Williams recently broke the inter-scholastic record. Other distant contestants will come from Auburn R. L. Beaumont, Tex., Shelby, Tenn., and Havlik Neb.

Cleveland—Several changes in the lineup of the New York Yankees are considered certain now as a result of the protracted slump which has the team in seventh position. Miller Huggins, manager of the team, reprimanded the players severely after yesterday's game which was blown to the Indians in the ninth inning. It was said that he threatened to go to work on some of the next pay checks.

New York—Wilbert Robertson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, will be elevated to the presidency of the club and Zach Wheat, captain of the team, will become the playing manager at a meeting of the club stockholders, to be held next week, it was reported today.

New York—Babe Ruth who had another workout in the Yankee stadium yesterday will be back in uniform when the Yankees return from the western trip, May 28, it was announced last night. Officials of the club doubt that he will be able to play regularly until the middle of June.

quently controversies arising concerning lots, and it was pointed out that if the plat had been recorded in the records, such trouble would not exist.

There are several good features to the law, and the presidents or secretaries of the associations should acquaint themselves with all provisions, in order to avoid any penalty, when the six months period expires, the county recorder points out.

The choir of the St. Paul's M. E. church will meet Friday night at the church for their regular rehearsal.

Mrs. I. L. Endres was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club yesterday at the Athletic club in Indianapolis.

Mrs. E. J. Knecht entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club this afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

The regular stated meeting of the Rebekah Lodge will be held Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall at eight o'clock. There will be election of officers at this meeting and it is very urgent that all the members be present.

Mrs. Harry G. Francis was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Grand Club at her home in North Harrison street. After a delightful afternoon spent over the car tables playing Bridge a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Mary A. Brown entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing Club at her home in West First street Wednesday. A pleasant afternoon was spent with various kinds of needlework, after which the hostess served a delectable two course luncheon. Ten members and four guests were present for this meeting.

"China," taken from the book "Ming Kowng" was the subject for discussion at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First United Presbyterian church, held in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Jesse Logan was in charge of the program and Miss Mary Logan conducted the devotional period preceding the program.

The Industrial Club enjoyed an all day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eva Offutt in East Sixth street. Twenty members and ten visitors were present for the bountiful pitch-in dinner served at the noon hour, and six more guests came in the afternoon. At the business meeting plans were made for an exchange to be held Saturday, June 6, and the club made arrangements to piece quilts and knot comforts.

Mrs. Mary Hollowell was a charming hostess Wednesday evening when she entertained with a dinner party and miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. Hubert Alexander, at the home of Mrs. Ira Clawson in North Jackson street. The appointments for the dining table were carried out in bouquets of spring flowers and the guests included teachers of the Jackson school, where Mrs. Alexander was a teacher, and a few friends. A pleasant social evening was enjoyed after the dinner party.

The members of the Elisha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Homer, spent Wednesday in Shelbyville as the guests of Mrs. C. L. Brown of 18 East Pennsylvania Street. At one o'clock a splendid luncheon was served in the dining room, the tables and rooms being prettily decorated with spring flowers. Preceding the program a short business session was held. Mrs. Gates, the regent, presiding. Responses to the roll call were "Spring Thoughts," Mrs. William Frow gave an original poem, Mrs. Byron Gates gave a review of the D. A. R. magazine and Mrs. Oscar Williams told of her trip to Boston, Mass., Plymouth Rock and Mount Vernon. Flag day will be observed with a picnic dinner for the families with Mr. and Mrs. William Pickrell of near Richland.

The Sunshine Club of Raleigh celebrated Mothers Day Wednesday afternoon, when they entertained with a delightful program at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Gray near Mays. All the members and seven guests were present and the responses to the roll call were "Mother." The feature of the program was the playlet entitled "The Century of Dress," in three parts, Mrs. Augusta Clifton representing the great grandmother; Mrs. Florence Poer, the grandmother; and Mrs. Wilbur Gray the mother. Mrs. Clifton sang "The Old Gray Bonnet," in costume, and Phyllis Ann Baker and Mary Elizabeth Bowles, gave readings. Mrs. Laella Baker and Mrs. Josia Aiken rendered beautiful solos. As the closing event of the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins entertained with a pitch-in supper Wednesday evening at their home in New Salem honoring the members of the east of the play, "Hinkey Doodle Town," which has been given in practically every township in the county, and which originated in New Salem. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelso and children, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Norris and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and daughter, Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Spillman, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hardwick and son, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stiers, the Misses Thelma Moore and Marian Sefton and Frank Henthorne and Russell Logan.

The Music Study Club held a guest meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter E. Smith in North Harrison street, it marking the close of the year for the club. An appropriate program was given as follows:

Duet: A. Bacarolle "Tales of Hoffman;" B. "Nearest and Dearest," Caracciolo, Mrs. C. E. Walden and Mrs. Neff Ashworth, Mrs. George Hogsett, accompanist. Solo: A. "Last Night," Kjerfve; B. "I Passed by Your Window," Brohe, Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mrs. Otto Moore, accompanist.

Following the program refreshments were served to the hundred guests present.

ABOUT 70 PER CENT FOR ROADS, SCHOOLS

541.49 for roads and $180,697.37 for schools.

Of the sum for schools $79,905.65 is for the tuition fund which is used to pay teachers' salaries; $79,468.39 for the special school fund which is for the maintenance of school buildings, and $21,323.33 for the school bonds fund, which is used to pay off school bonds falling due and to pay interest on outstanding bonds.

Of the amount for road purposes $32,843.37 is for gravel road repair which goes to the county highway department for maintenance; $33,569.46 is collected as road tax to be used on township roads, and $93,128.66 is for the road bonds and interest fund, which is used to meet money going to the smaller political divisions of the county is as follows: Township tax, which is used for administrative purposes, $7,746.47; township poor $3,246.52; general fund, which is Rushville city's share of the spring installment, $42,190.66; street tax, $148.08, which is levied exclusively for Glenwood; library tax, $3,691.34; electric light and water works tax, $2,148.39, which is levied in Glenwood and Carthage only, vocational agricultural tax $1,057.41.

The city will also receive $69.90 in delinquent taxes from the previous year when levies were established for various funds, instead of the method now in use. The city levies a general fund tax and appropriates the amounts desired for its various funds.

The county sent to the state the sum of $81,545.78, but $3,239.67 of the amount was not derived from taxation. Common school fund interest going to the state amounted to $2,920.48, permanent endowment fund interest to $201.19 and circuit court docket fees $118.

The amount actually raised by taxation which the state receives is divided as follows: state tax, $13,609.52; benevolent institution fund, $22,127.75; state school fund, $19,997.96; state educational institution fund, $13,720.99; state vocational education fund, $1,374.12; state soldiers' memorial $1,646.46; agricultural experiment station, $1,097.69; state teachers' pension fund, $1,096.70; Dunes park $548.87; state agricultural board $686.05.

Of the total distributed $4,659.97 was from poll taxes, going for the following: state revenue, $760.27; state schools $760.28; county revenue, $1,520.55; all other revenue, $1,609.87.

McCoy's Keeps Old Folks Feeling Young

Try This New Cod Liver Oil Preparation To Increase Your Strength Vitality and Endurance

Money Back If It Dont Help You.

Why should any old person let feebleness overwhelm them in these enlightened days? Surely everyone knows by this time that Cod Liver Oil contains more vitamins than anything else on earth and is the greatest body builder in the world.

Any physician will tell you that. You'll like to take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—they are sugar coated and as easy to take as candy and they do help old people.

Why not try being years younger again—why not grow stronger in body, in mind in vitality? Why not take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and drop years from your age in 30 days? We believe that a 30 days treatment will make you feel years younger—but at any rate try them for 30 days and if you are not satisfied get your money back—60 tablets—60 cents at F. B. Johnson Co., or Pittman and Wilson, or any progressive druggist. Be sure and get McCoy's—the original and genuine.

Spectacular Show at Princess
 "Sandown," First National's powerful, spectacular feature, opened last night at the Princess theatre.

Since the advent of motion pictures there have been but few that really can be called "great." "Sandown" is one of them and can rightfully take its place beside "The Birth of a Nation," "The Four Horsemen," "Intolerance," and "The Covered Wagon."

There is no one big moment. No clash of physical forces is depended upon to lift the film from the ordinary run of celluloid drama—yet it is so far ahead of the usual "big feature," in entertainment value and for its inspiring and emotion stirring qualities that there is no comparison.

For its theme, the author, Earl Hudson, has taken a page from current history, basing the story on the disintegration of the West of yesterday—the romantic West of story and song.

Laurette Taylor at Castle

When it comes to really first-class comedy our hats are off to Laurette Taylor and the Metro company for their production of "Happiness," which came to the Castle theatre last night. It is an aeon since anything has appeared on the screen so light, deft and amusing as this picture of J. Hartley Manners' play, which comes as sort of a sequel to his famous "Peg O' My Heart."

On the screen "Happiness" outdoes "Peg." It is much smoother, peppier, if that is possible, and the general effect arrives at a more definite conclusion than the earlier picture.

Miss Taylor had established a place entirely her own as the queen of comedienne behind the footlights, now she has won a similar niche in the realm of the cinema. No one we can think of possesses the same amount of personality and fire as this really great actress, and nobody can transfer her art to the screen as well as she. What we are trying to say is that Miss Taylor is superb.

Rushville High School Seniors Close
Work and Prepare for Last
Week's Activities

CLASS DAY PROGRAM FRIDAY

Junior-Senior Reception Friday
Night, Baccalaureate Sunday and
Commencement May 29

Members of the graduating class of the Rushville high school were "resting on their oars" today, having completed their semester's work Wednesday evening. A comparatively small number of seniors had to take examinations today.

From now on until the commencement exercises Friday evening, May 29, the seniors will be engaged in festivities that attend the closing of schools, opening with the Junior-Senior reception at the Elks club Friday evening.

The class will number close to sixty and will be one of the largest, if not the largest, in the history of the Rushville high school. The class address will be delivered by the Rev. Benjamin J. Bush, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Lexington, Kentucky, who is recommended as a public speaker of great ability. The commencement will be held at the Graham Annex auditorium.

The other outstanding event in the commencement week events is the baccalaureate services, which will be held at the Main Street Christian church Sunday evening. All churches will join in the service and the Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will deliver the sermon. Special music will be provided by Homer Cole's orchestra and Miss Helen Jaehne will sing.

The seniors will have their final contact with school rooms Friday afternoon when the annual class day exercises and the graduates that are to be will "strut their stuff" before the study body at 2:15 in the Annex auditorium. Immediately following the forenoon, the high school annual which is issued by the graduating class, will be distributed. By those who have seen it, the book is regarded as probably the best ever put out by Rushville high school.

For the underclassmen, school will take up as usual next Monday morning in the afternoon exemption cards will be distributed. Final examinations will be held Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday schools will be dismissed while teachers make up grades. On Friday reports will be given out. The same program will be followed in the grades.

WILL CONTEST INVOLVES ESTATE OF JAMES GRAY

William H. Gray and Others Allege
Document Was Fraudulently Executed in 1917

PLAINTIFFS WERE CUT OFF

A complaint to contest the will of an estate valued at $15,000 was filed in the circuit court today by William H. Gray and others against Vincent Gray and others, and involving the estate of James Gray.

The complaint alleges that James Gray died May 25, 1924, and his will was recorded in court and Vincent Gray appointed administrator. The plaintiffs allege that they are heirs at law to their portion of the estate, and are not mentioned in the will.

They charge that the will, dated in 1917, was made under undue influence, was fraudulently executed, and that the deceased was of unsound mind and easily influenced when the will was made. The action is to have the court set aside the will, and order the distribution among the heirs pursuant to the laws of descent.

Another complaint was filed today by Walter Emsweller against Albert L. Allen and Sam Young, the action being on a contract resulting from a threshing agreement between the parties, and in which the plaintiff alleges there is due him from the defendants the sum of $65.

DEPARTMENT PREVENTS SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE

Roof of Cottage Hotel, Fourth and
Morgan Streets, Catches Fire
From Sparks

NO DAMAGE DONE BY WATER

A roof fire at the Cottage Hotel, Fourth and Morgan streets, caused a loss of probably $100 this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and only quick action by the fire department prevented a more serious loss.

The blaze started from sparks when trash was being burned in the furnace. The fire centered around a dormer window above the second floor, and the dry shingles were burning rapidly over the roof, when it was discovered.

The pumpers make a quick run to the place and the booster hose line was used. The other pumper laid a line from the hydrant to supply the booster tank, and in this manner the fire was extinguished without any loss resulting from water.

The building is owned by Ed Beer, and insurance will cover the loss. A similar fire, only of much less serious consequence, started in the roof several months ago.

Spring Distribution of Taxes Shows
$340,238.86 Being Used for
These Two Purposes

OVER HALF MILLION DIVIDED

County Receives Meagre Sum of
$26,113.25 to Pay Expenses and
State $78,306.11

Over a half million dollars in taxes, representing the amount collected since the fall collection in 1924, is distributed in the June distribution which has just been completed in the county auditor's office and was approved Wednesday when taken to the state auditor in Indianapolis by Harry Myers, county auditor. The distribution was completed earlier this year than ever before, and was the second in the state to be finished. A small county in southern Indiana was the first to finish the semi-annual task. May 23 was the earliest date previously that the settlement was ever completed in the auditor's office here.

Contrary to the general opinion among taxpayers that most of the taxes go to the state and county, the vast majority is for schools, roads and local governments.

The county receives out of the spring collections the meagre sum of $26,113.25, which is for county officers' salaries and office supplies, maintenance of the county infirmary and upkeep of the court house and jail.

The state actually receives only $78,306.11. Almost seventy percent of the taxes collected go to roads and schools.

The sum distributed was $505,957.81. Of his amount $496,614.88 was collected on the spring installment and the balance $9,342.93, was delinquent taxes collected since the last settlement in December.

Schools and roads in the county receive $340,238.86, divided $159, Continued on Page Six

VILLAGE BELLE EXONERATED

Coroner's Jury Finds Riverdale, Ill.,
High School Girl Guiltless

Riverdale, Ill., May 21—A Coroner's jury here this afternoon exonerated Lucille Wunsch, 16 year old "Belle of Riverdale" for the killing of Agnes Simnick, 28, who it is alleged attempted to break up the Wunsch home.

Although finding that Lucille killed her mother's rival, the jury decided that death was accidental. The school girl's testimony at the inquest which lasted three hours, brought about this decision.

"I did not mean to kill her," Lucille testified. "I did not know the gun was loaded. I only wanted to scare her."

SCHOLARSHIPS IN I. U.

Represent Amount Equal to Contin-gent Fees First Year—Six Have
Profited From Them

Two Seniors in the schools of Rush county will be given scholarships to Indiana University within a few days, and as soon as the grades of the graduates can be looked over by B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent, who is authorized to make the appointments.

At the present time there have been six Rush county students given such scholarships, with Pearl Macy and Vera Reynolds completing their first year now on such certificates. The other four who have attended, or are now attending Indiana University, and were given Freshmen scholarships, include Milo Aiken, Garrett Reynolds, Florence Fleehart and Mary Wilson.

The principals of the schools in the county have received letters from Indiana university calling attention to the fact that two pupils from Rush county are eligible, and each principal can recommend some one from his Senior class to the county superintendent. Mr. Farthing now has several applications on file and will determine the successful applicants in a few days.

The scholarships are for the Freshman year, and have a value of $40, an amount equal to the contingent fees for the year.

Dean David A. Rothrock in his letter to the principals stated that "the law requires that the scholarships be granted to the two students in each county having the highest general average in the entire high school course."

"To avoid appointment of those who are not likely to make high grade records at the University," writes Dean Rothrock to the high school executives, "the aid and co-operation of the principals and superintendents are requested. Please announce to your high school pupils that those scholarships are available, and assist in obtaining high appointments from your county."

"Not all appointees to county scholarships in the past have made creditable records in the University. For the current year 153 appointments were made, 11 of whom did Continued on Page Two

Americans Help Celebrate Come Back Of Beer

Province of Ontario Makes Merry
Over First Sales of 4.4 Per. Cent
Beer Now Permitted by Law and
Thousands Flock Across the Border

(By United Press)

The province of Ontario made merry today over the first sales of 4.4 percent beer now permitted by law.

From Ottawa to Windsor, border cities and towns, range within the sound of the celebration from which the presence of American visitors were by no means missing.

The new beer was officially termed "non-intoxicating and refreshing" but Ontario thought differently and determined to convince its American neighbors of the attractiveness of the beverage. Reports said 50,000 visitors are expected.

Meanwhile the United States tightened its border patrols to prevent an overflow of this 4.4 percent beer into the states below the border. With the rum fleet off New York scattered and blocked in its smuggling operations, bootleggers were expected to turn their attention to the border country.

CHRISTIAN FOX, 85, DIED THIS AFTERNOON

Well Known Resident of This City,
Had Been in Serious Condition
Since Last September

Christian Fox, age 85 years, a well known citizen of this city, died this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at his home, corner of First and Pearl streets, death resulting from a long illness with diabetes and complications.

Mr. Fox was born in Brunswick, Germany, and came to this city 64 years ago. Several months ago he was taken ill, and had been bedfast since last September, with his condition gradually growing worse.

He is survived by the widow by a second marriage, and two daughters, Mrs. Helen Garrett and Mrs. Louis Cohoe of this city. He also leaves three step-sons, Glen Sommer of this city and James F. Sommer of Racine, Wis., and J. O. Sommer of St. Louis.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city. The funeral arrangements were not completed today and will be announced later.

MANY PRINCIPALS WILL NOT RETURN

Several Changes in Executives in
Rush County Schools Will Take
Place Next Year

NUMBER TO LEAVE COUNTY

Glenwood, Raleigh, Webb, Milroy,
Center and Richland Schools Will
Have New Heads

Several changes in the executive positions of the schools of Rush county will be made for the new school term next fall, it was announced today at the office of B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent. The changes affect the principalship of many township and elementary schools.

New principals will be employed for the Glenwood and Raleigh schools. Paul Royalty, who was principal this year at Glenwood, and Blythe Scales at Raleigh, have each resigned and will attend Indiana University next fall in order to complete their work and receive their A. M. degree.

The appointment of Charles Ruby, a Carthage resident, for the principalship of Glenwood, has been made, and Mr. Stafford, principal of the Bentonville school in Fayette county, has resigned his position there, to become the new principal at Raleigh.

Vernon Klipsch, principal at Webb, will not return next year, but will probably accept a position in Johnson county, it was stated today. His successor for Webb has not been obtained.

J. P. Sauter, principal this year at Milroy, will leave, and it was stated that Lyle Power of Milroy, formerly principal there, and who has been attending Harvard University, will be back again next year at Milroy as principal.

F. C. Landrus, principal at Center, who lives in Hancock county, has resigned to take up the principalship for the school at Westland, which is near his home. For this vacancy, Dudley Campbell, assistant principal at Raleigh, has been named, and he will be transferred by the promotion.

Roy Banta, who has been in charge of the two room school at Richland, will not return next year, as he is leaving the teaching profession, and will take up farming near Warsaw, Ind. The vacancy has not been filled at this school.

Glen Crawley of Clarksburg has been appointed principal of the Continued on Page Two

PATRIOTIC BODIES TO ATTEND SUNDAY SERVICE

The Rev. B. F. Cato Will Preach Annual Memorial Sermon at Main
Street Christian Church

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS MADE

All patriotic orders of Rushville were asked today by the committee in charge of the annual Memorial Day program, to attend the services Sunday morning at the Main Street Christian church.

At this time the annual Decoration Day sermon will be preached by the Rev. B. F. Cato, pastor of the church. Civil War veterans will attend in a body, and reservations will be made at the church for all patriotic orders which will attend.

The Memorial Day sermon on Sunday will be followed by the annual program on Decoration Day, May 30, when the graves of the soldiers of all wars will be decorated in the cemeteries of this city. There will be short exercises in connection with Memorial Day, and the usual parade of patriotic organizations and school children will be made at that time. The sermon to be preached Sunday is also an annual event, and is held on the Sunday prior to Decoration Day.

NEW VENIRE CALLED IN SHEPHERD TRIAL

Atmosphere Charged with Rumors
of Plot and Counter Plots as
Jury Selection Goes On

FIRST PANEL NEARLY GONE

Search for Robert White, Missing
Star Witness, Grows Intense—
Trace of Him Lost

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 21—The atmosphere charged with rumors of plot and counter plots to bribe and tamper with jurors and witnesses, 200 new veniremen were called today in attempts to secure a jury to try William D. Shepherd on the charge that he murdered Billy McClintock.

The first panel of 100 prospective jurors neared exhaustion and still no juror was permanently accepted. The second panel was summoned at once in order to prevent delay.

Most of the jurors were dismissed because they had formed opinions as to Shepherd's guilt or innocence through the wide publicity given to the case. Many others were excused by the state because they objected to giving the death penalty.

Search for Robert White, missing star witness for the prosecution, became intense today. Detectives returned from St. Joseph, Mich., with information that a couple had registered at a hotel there under the name of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Olson, of Topeka, Kans. They have since left, their destination unknown.

Authorities said they believed this couple was White and his wife. White and his family disappeared from their home here leaving word that they were going away until after Continued on Page Three

DECLAMATIONS ARE REPEATED

Four Winners in High School Con-
test Before Kiwanis Club

Four high school orators, winners in the Mansfield Declaration contest held Monday night, appeared before the Kiwanis club at their weekly luncheon today noon, and gave their orations.

The four who were presented to the club members were Miss Olive Logan, winner of first prize, who spoke on "The Other Fellow," an oration by William Hawley Smith, and the other three speakers were Frank Green, Jr., Miss Kathleen Hobbs and Edith Claire Walden. The orations were well given, and won much applause from the club members.

Robert Mansfield, sponsor of the declamation contest which is to be an annual affair among high school pupils, gave a short talk preceding the introduction of the four youthful orators.

CEMETERY PLATS MUST BE FILED

New Law Compels all Associations
Selling Burial Lots, to Have Plats
Properly Recorded

GIVEN 6 MONTHS TO COMPLY

After That Time, if Plats are Not
on File, it is Unlawful to Dispose of Any Lots

Miss Eleanor B. Sleeth, county recorder, called attention today to an act of the 1925 general assembly which requires all cemetery associations, properly filed on the plat book the same as any addition to an incorporated town or city.

In looking over the plat book, it was estimated that about one-half of the burial associations in Rush county have had their plats recorded, and under the new law, which makes it compulsory, a period of six months is given to have the land properly described on the plat book.

The law states that after the six months period expires on October 31 it will be unlawful for any cemetery association to sell a lot, and a violation of the law carries a fine of not less than $100, which may be increased to $500, and every thirty days thereafter in which the association has failed to comply with the law, constitutes another offense.

In addition to the plat book record, section 5 of the new law creates a new business for the county recorder. This section provides that it shall be the duty of the recorder to provide a book in which to record all cemetery deeds and such book shall be designated as the county cemetery records. In the past, all lot deeds in cemetery associations, are listed in the regular records with other property.

The only cemetery associations that can evade this new law, are those containing less than five acres of land, and those associations which have not sold a lot during the past 15 years, but in case such associations should resume selling lots then the plat must be recorded, the same as any other association.

The plat book in the office of the county recorder fails to show some of the most important and large cemeteries of Rush county, it was disclosed today, because there was never any law to compel the filing of the original plat.

It is estimated that there are probably two dozen associations in the county. Some of those recorded and properly plated with all additions, are the Raleigh cemetery, Zion, Arlington, Riverside, and Ebenezer cemetery.

The original plat of an addition to the Milroy cemetery was destroyed by fire, and there is fre- Continued on Page Five

FORGED CHECK FOR $100 IS DISCOVERED

Man Uses Fictitious Names and
Rushville Address and Bank to
Obtain Money

CASHED IN ANOTHER CITY

The Farmers Trust company today received word of a $100 forged check which was drawn on the local bank in favor of "Aldy Nire," 221 North Perkins street, Rushville, and was cashed by a bank in a neighboring city.

The bank cashing the check discovered it was a forgery when the check came back from the Rushville bank marked "no funds" and an investigation here disclosed that the names used were fictitious. The street address was that of the Daily Republican office.

The check was signed by "Frank Baynards." Neither of the names is listed in the city directory here and no one recalls ever having heard such names before.

"Nire" claimed he worked for "Baynards," according to the report received by the Farmers Trust Company. He is said to have had the appearance of being a garage workman. The handwriting was very poor and it was with difficulty that the names were made out. The check was dated May 9, 1925.

Dreadful Condition of Mrs. Fullerton's Health Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Clearfield, Pa.—"I cannot begin to tell you how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me in every way. Before taking it I couldn't stand on my feet without pains running all through my whole body from my waist down, just like threads pulling. I was not fit to do any work. My mother got me to try the Vegetable Compound and I have found great benefit, and I not only recovered but for such troubles, but to buy the whole system. I have used it for most everything that gets wrong with me. When I begin to feel nervous and irritable I don't stop long in getting a bottle of the Vegetable Compound if I haven't got one in the house. It gives a fine appetite and makes a new woman of me. You may use this testimonial in my own town or anywhere else, and I will answer any letters I receive." — Mrs. RUSH FULLERTON, 525 S. 2nd Street, Clearfield, Pa.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Executor's Sale of Real Estate

The undersigned executor of the last will of Mary E. Jarrett, deceased, hereby gives notice that by virtue of the power by said will conferred, he will, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. of the

6th DAY OF JUNE, 1925

and from day to day, thereafter, until sold, at the place of business of

offer for sale, at private sale, the following real estate:

Lot number fourteen (14) in the Original Plat of the Town of Wilmington (now Manilla), Rush County, Indiana, on the north side of Main Street, and all the land lying immediately east of said lot, fourteen (14) in the west half of the southeast quarter of Section fifteen (15) Township Thirteen (13) north, Range eight (8) east; also, commencing at the northwest corner of Lot No. eleven (11), in the Original Plat of the Town of Wilmington (now Manilla), Rush County, Indiana, thence north to the north line of the west half of the southeast quarter of Section fifteen (15), Township thirteen (13) north, Range eight (8) east, thence east on said line to the east line of said half quarter, thence south on said line to the corporation line of the town of Manilla, thence west on said line to the place of beginning, said last described tract containing 2 1/4 acres, more or less.

The above described real estate is located at the town of Manilla, Indiana, and has a frontage of approximately 129 feet on the principal street of said town. It is bounded on the east by a good gravel road. There is on said real estate a house of ten rooms, cellar and bath, wired for electricity, and equipped with good electric light fixtures; equipped with hot water, American Radiator Corp. heating plant. The other buildings on said real estate consist of a garage, work-shop and coal shed, a barn and granary, and a poultry house.

There is, on said premises, an orchard, cherry trees and grape vines.

Also, the following real estate in Walker Township, Rush County, Indiana, to-wit:

The southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of Section fourteen (14), Township thirteen (13) north, Range eight (8) east, and the west half of the northeast quarter of Section twenty-three (23) in said township and range, and containing 120 acres, more or less.

The last above described real estate consists of a good, productive farm, located within three quarters of a mile of the town of Manilla, Indiana, which provides a shipping point over the Pennsylvania Railroad, and a consolidated grade and commissioned high school.

The buildings consist of a five-room house with cellar, a double corn crib, a cow stable, a hog barn, a poultry house, a garage, a smoke-house and other outbuildings.

There is a small woods pasture on the place, and the farm is well supplied with good water, there being four wells.

The farm is bounded on two sides by good gravel road, the soil is productive and fertile, the buildings are substantial, and the entire place presents an attractive appearance.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of the Rush Circuit Court, for not less than the full appraised value of said real estate, and upon the following

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The first described tract will be sold with the purchaser paying one-third the purchase price, cash in hand on day of sale; the unpaid purchase price to be evidenced by two promissory notes, of the purchaser, of equal amounts, bearing 6 per cent. interest from date, waiving relief, and secured by first mortgage upon the premises sold, and due in six and twelve months, respectively. Purchaser to have privilege of paying entire purchase price in cash.

The second described tract will be sold subject to a mortgage of Seven Thousand Dollars, principal, payable to Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, and bearing 5 1/2% interest, the purchaser assuming the payment of said mortgage as a part of the purchase price. The balance of the purchase price shall be paid as follows: One-half thereof, cash in hand on day of sale, the balance to be evidenced by promissory note of purchaser bearing 6 per cent. interest from date, due in nine months, waiving relief and secured by second mortgage upon said premises. Purchaser to have privilege of paying entire purchase price, above mortgage, in cash.

MODERATOR MAKES OPENING ADDRESS

Dr. C. E. Macartney, Who Retires as Head of General Presbytery Assembly, Opens Convention

IN SESSION AT COLUMBUS, O.

His Theme of "Reconciliation Through Christ," Opens Modernist-Conservative Argument

Columbus, O., May 21.—The war of the Conservatives (Fundamentalists) and the Radicals (Modernists) began with the opening of the annual General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A., here today. The first shot was fired by the retiring moderator, Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney of Philadelphia, Pa., in his annual sermon opening the session. His theme was "Reconciliation Through Christ." Macartney was elected moderator in 1924 as a conservative on the direct issue.

The speaker rejected the "literary Jesus" and said that on the answer to the question "Who is Christ?" depended the truth or falsehood of the Christian faith. He continued.

"The tremendous answer of St. Paul, of the New Testament, is that God was in Christ. The history of the Christian Church can display no sadder spectacle than the present day tendency to explain our Lord Jesus Christ in the terms of exalted humanity only. With what Paul called 'good words and fair speeches' men who have never really bowed before the Son of God, as Redeemer have 'deceived the hearts of the simple' and rhetorical Jesus who never existed and who is unable to deliver from sin and death."

Commenting on the modern church Dr. Macartney said:

"The chief trouble with our churches today is that nobody is a sinner any more. From our pulpits we hear much of the divinity of man and a great deal about vision, courage, service, community obligation, and how to abolish war, but almost nothing of sin, old fashioned, Scriptural, unadorned, unevolved, undecorated, God-defying death-deserving, soul destroying sin. Yet to deal with that kind of sin Christ came into the world."

"Too many have detected sin from their hymn books and Bibles and conscience, and yet try to find still some meaning in the Christian religion."

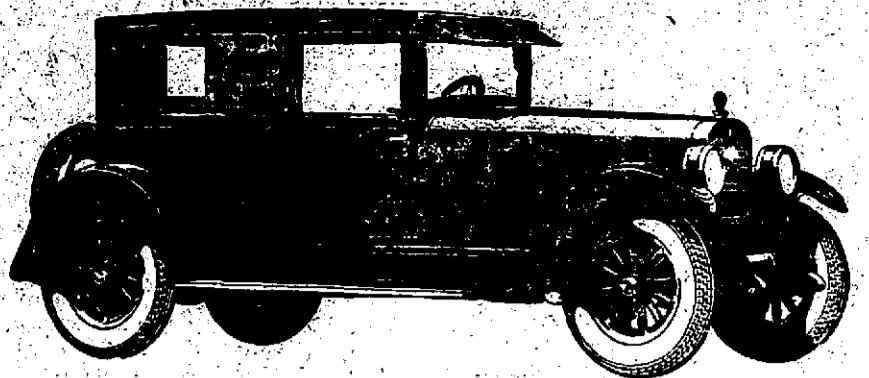

Dr. Macartney said the great point in the Christian religion was that Christ died to save sinners and asked:

"Is the Church now to forsake its 'first love' and preach to a lost and fallen humanity the merits and virtues of human nature, in place of the atoning and saving work of Christ as the only Redeemer from sin? Where the offense of the Cross has ceased, there the Gospel has ceased and the Church has vanished. So we might have great cathedrals, and eloquent human speech and singing which would cause Gabriel himself to hang his head in silence, and the hum and rumor of classes and organizations, and much stained glass, and great ecclesiastical conventions, and great men's classes requiring special trains to transport them—and with it all, no offense of the Cross, no Gospel!"

"Because some college student does not like the bitter-sweet of the doctrine of Calvary and the atonement, therefore we are told to leave it out of our preaching. Because some other man cannot stand the miracles of Jesus, therefore let us preach a Christ who did no miracles, that is, a Christ who never existed. Because some other 'modern mind' cannot endure the resurrection, therefore let us speak of the resurrection of Jesus as if it meant only some evidence of his continuing personality!"

"So far has this shameful accommodation and this cowardly acquiescence in the world's unbelief been carried in some quarters, that Paul and John and Peter would never recognize what is called a Christian sermon in some places today as the tremendous doctrines which they preached and which turned the world upside down. God save our churches from becoming lighthouses whose light has been quenched, or, what is even worse, lighthouses which flash and glow with false lights to deceive and lure to destruction the pilgrims on life's stormy sea!"

"It may be that God has a controversy with his Church, and that even darker days are ahead of us. It may please him to sift our churches and discover how many there are in our midst who know and honor Jesus as King and Redeemer."

Great and True:—Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect for all his ways and judgment a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he. Deuteronomy 32: 3, 4.

Prayer:—Our God and Father, Thou are our shadow from the heat, and shelter from the storm, water in the wilderness, the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

The City Primary

Every vote cast in the Rushville city primary cost forty-two cents. This would have been materially reduced if the participation in the primary by the voters had been more general, because all of the voters could have been accommodated at the same expense.

It is not the expense that should be the deciding factor in weighing the primary. If through his system, voters were influenced to go to the polls and take a whole hearted interest in the selection of their party tickets, it would be worth whatever it cost.

But the primary does not do what it advocates said it would do when it was made a law in Indiana. The primary was supported by some of the best minds in the belief that it would produce better results than the representative system; that it might bring the people nearer to their government; that it might arouse in them a keener desire to know more of their office holders and that it might create a wider and more intense public interest in the methods by which the people are governed.

The same men and women who were so strong in their advocacy of the direct primary have been disillusioned; they have seen that the practical application of the primary theory is not satisfactory. Many former vigorous advocates have frankly changed their views and are now willing to change to the caucus and convention method or to any other safe, consistent and economical system that will insure the selection of honest persons of sound judgment and known ability.

This should not be construed as a reflection on the honesty, integrity or ability of any candidate. But it happens so often that the best qualified men for office are defeated through a coalition of interests not in favor of good government, who resort to the tricks commonly used in the primary.

It is now recognized as a fact that among persons seeking office, the most enthusiastic advocates of the primary are those who appreciate that they would have little or no chance to win before a convention, the delegates to which knew them and what they represented, as those delegates would be likely to know.

The founders of the American republic sought to establish and did establish a representative government. They believed that the best results would come from the selection of governing officials by representatives of the people who would be chosen by the people. In other words, that the wisest procedure was for the people to select delegates, these delegates to select the persons who were to serve the people.

The direct primary system has taken us far afield from this fundamental principle upon which the Fathers built a representative form of government. Many of our present-day political ills, made manifest by dishonest public officials, who have caused many people to lose faith in government, may be traced to the direct primary, which has put the demagogue in the saddle and displaced reason.

Civic Improvements

Every Rushville citizen interested in seeing Rushville get ahead as it should, will applaud the work of the present city council in ever endeavoring to advance civic improvements. The council has a number of successful projects to its credit, and before leaving office, it proposes to add a few more.

The council has ordered the erection of a bandstand in Memorial park, the construction of curb and gutter in Eleventh street and will carry the remodeling of the city building to a successful conclusion.

This is as it should be. No sane reason can be given for not having city property just as respectable and decent looking as private property. No self-respecting individual would have permitted his property to deteriorate as the city building has. It should have a modern front, as the council proposes to install, and the adjoining hayloft should be remodeled so that it may be used by the city authorities. Also, the firemen are entitled to livable quarters, which they will have when the remodeling is finished.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Herbert Quick, the writer and ex-member of the Federal Farm Loan Board, who died recently, was even more interesting face to face than in his extremely interesting books. I had an office with him for awhile during his early days as a lawyer in Iowa, was his secretary as mayor of Sioux City, and he took dinner at my house, here in Washington, not many days before his death.

He was just starting to write his memoirs. Indeed, he came into the capital, from his home at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., to talk over with me some of his adventures in which I myself had a share.

Quick had known no end of celebrities and eccentricities, had had a hand in a lot of important and unusual happenings and told his experiences in the queerest way. He looked at them from an angle all his own—not a bit like any other angle.

At the proper age for it, he had had infantile paralysis which left him, not crippled, but with a noticeable peculiarity of gait. Infantile paralysis, he contended, was a very valuable thing to have had—it greatly strengthened and improved the intellect, provided the patient lived.

He didn't say that nobody became great who hadn't had it, but he did insist that practically everybody who did have it became great. Or possibly, only the potential great were subject to it. He wasn't sure which.

He was very proud of the fact that crooks and criminals of every variety had an instinctive liking for him.

It was true they did. He was brought in contact with all the shady saloon men, dive keepers, gamblers and miscellaneous bad characters in town during the period of his Sioux City mayoralty—and they were pretty plenty there then and every one of them took to him at first sight.

It wasn't that he did anything to win their kindly regard. They simply gave it to him unasked. Even when he closed them up, they spoke well of him just the same.

He didn't like crime, he said, but he condoned a reasonable amount of vice. Within bounds, he explained, though reprehensible, he considered it the vicious individual's own affair.

PROBABLY this attitude was what endeared him to the liberal element. It didn't endear him to puritans, however, and one term as mayor was all he got out of three candidacies—and the first one, before the liberal-minded better part of the citizenry had found out what kind of character they subsequently thought he was. His humor was too subtle for much success in politics.

As I say, I knew him very well. I think this is the sort of eulogy he'd like. And I'm sorry the world never will see his memoirs.

STRONG CONTENDER IN MILE

Phillips Expected to Show Well in Conference Meet in June

Herman Phillips, former Rushville high school athlete, who has been winning laurels for Butler college during the spring track season, will be a strong contender in the Western Conference meet at Ohio State university, Columbus, early next month.

He is regarded as practically a sure winner in the mile, providing Shimick of Marquette does not enter. The Marquette entry, if he runs, is the choice of most sport writers, although it is admitted Phillips will give him a race.

Phillips is almost one of the most dependable members of the Butler relay team, which is expected to figure among the leaders in this event at the meet.

Scott's Feat Great

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 21—Count up the men in your acquaintance, who are engaged in a fairly laborious profession and figure how many of them have not missed a day in the office or in the shop for three years and a half. Perhaps you can point out five or six, maybe more, maybe less and perhaps none at all.

The fewer you know who have not been stricken with illness for three years and a half, who have not been disabled and rendered unfit for duty or who have not taken one day off to go hunting or fishing, the more you will appreciate the remarkable record of Everett Scott, the veteran deacon who has been playing shortstop for the New York Yankees.

On June 20, 1916, Mike McNally, who was playing shortstop for the New York Yankees, was taken out of the lineup to let a pinch hitter bat for him and Scott was sent to his position to play the rest of the game. From that day until May 6, 1925, Scotty didn't miss a game, and when he was finally benched he had made a record of playing in 1,307 consecutive games, not counting the game in four world's series that he did not miss.

Some ball players will tell you that Scotty's record deserves full credit and a prominent place on the list of those stars who have done something real big in baseball, but they will tell you—not for publication—that Scotty was foolish to do it.

"Why burn yourself out for any record? Why give a substitute the life of Rielly on the bench or keep a substitute out of a job? A well known player said a few days ago. 'There's no sentiment in baseball. They'll keep you in the game as long as they need you, but when you're through they look for a spot where they can send you and get the best bargain for someone else. That record didn't do Scotty any good. When he slowed up too much they benched him and sent in a kid. He wouldn't have slowed up so soon, if he hadn't burnt himself up after that record. Maybe he could have had two or three more good years in the game. But when he's through, he'll have to go to the minors. Down in the bushes they don't pay on records. They pay on how much ground a fellow can cover and how many hits he can get. We all like Scotty. There isn't a better fellow in baseball, but baseball is a business where it's every fellow for himself and where a fellow has to take care of his own end. I'm not going in for any records. I'm going to save myself so I can make a big league salary just as long as I can.'"

Twenty bases on balls were heaped by six wild pitchers in a wild game taken by the White Sox from the Red Sox 10 to 7.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Tris Speaker, Cleveland manager, went clear around from first base on an ordinary single and scored the run in the ninth inning that beat the Yankees 10 to 9. Five hits and two passes scored the six runs for the Indians in the final frame.

George Kelly's homer in the first inning with two on base put the game on ice for Zeke Barnes and the Giants beat the Cubs, 6 to 1.

Cobb's triple in the eighth inning started a rally that resulted in four runs and the Tigers downed the Senators 7 to 3.

Four pitchers were pounded for nine runs in the sixth inning and the Reds mauled the Braves 15 to 9.

For the first time since the season started, George Sisler failed to hit safely and the Athletics beat the Browns, 8 to 6. Ken Williams hit a homer with the bases loaded.

Three runs scored on a rally in the eighth inning and a homer by Wrightstone in the sixth gave the Phillies an 8 to 4 victory over the Cardinals.

Pounding four pitchers for 22 hits, the Pirates cleaned the Robins 12 to 3.

Results Plus Stamina That Compel Consideration

There is no car that so clearly compels first consideration as the Chrysler Six—By right of results delivered by no other car, by right of unparalleled economy, by right of wonderful roadability made still more wonderful by effective stabilizers, and by right of noteworthy stamina.

The remarkable dependability and endurance of the car are not matters of chance.

They are, of course, the result of the most painstaking effort and determined purpose.

Chrysler results are delivered unfailingly and with continued brilliance for tens of thousands of miles, and it is that fact that accounts for the car's ever-growing popularity, almost as much as the results themselves.

Let us demonstrate these results for you and explain in greater detail why owners say the Chrysler Six is the best built car on the market today.

Chicago—Julius Sagalewski of Butler college, Indianapolis, and Donovan of Notre Dame are favored to win the Big Ten invitation teams championships which open a three day session on the U of Chicago courts today. Jerome of Michigan, Hunter of Ohio State and Goodwillie of Illinois are other outstanding entrants.

South Bend—Osaka Mainichi of Japan defeated Notre Dame's baseball team here in a tightly contested 10 inning battle yesterday 2 to 1.

Chicago—Jack Williams, Inglewood Calif., high school pole vaulter is the latest entry for the Stagg national inter-scholastic meet to be held June 5 at the U of Chicago. Williams recently broke the inter-scholastic record. Other distant contestants will come from Auburn R. I., Beaumont, Tex., Shelby, Tenn., and Havlic Neb.

Cleveland—Several changes in the lineup of the New York Yankees are considered certain now as a result of the protracted slump which has the team in seventh position. Miller Huggins, manager of the team, reprimanded the players severely after yesterday's game which was blown to the Indians in the ninth inning. It was said that he threatened to go to work on some of the next pay checks.

New York—Wilbert Robertson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, will be elevated to the presidency of the club and Zach Wheat, captain of the team, will become the playing manager at a meeting of the club stockholders, to be held next week, it was reported today.

New York—Babe Ruth who had another workout in the Yankee stadium yesterday will be back in uniform when the Yankees return from the western trip, May 28, it was announced last night. Officials of the club doubt that he will be able to play regularly until the middle of June.

The choir of the St. Paul's M. E. church will meet Friday night at the church for their regular rehearsal.

Mrs. I. L. Endres was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club yesterday at the Athletic club in Indianapolis.

Mrs. E. J. Knecht entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club this afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

The regular stated meeting of the Rebekah Lodge will be held Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall at eight o'clock. There will be election of officers at this meeting and it is very urgent that all the members be present.

Mrs. Harry G. Francis was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Grand Club at her home in North Harrison street. After a delightful afternoon spent over the car tables playing Bridge a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Mary A. Brown entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing Club at her home in West First street Wednesday. A pleasant afternoon was spent with various kinds of needlework, after which the hostess served a delectable two course luncheon. Ten members and four guests were present for this meeting.

"China," taken from the book "Ming Kowng" was the subject for discussion at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First United Presbyterian church, held in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Jesse Logan was in charge of the program and Miss Mary Logan conducted the devotional period preceding the program.

The Industrial Club enjoyed an all day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eva Offutt in East Sixth street. Twenty members and ten visitors were present for the bountiful pitch-in dinner served at the noon hour, and six more guests came in the afternoon. At the business meeting plans were made for an exchange to be held Saturday, June 6, and the club made arrangements to piece quilts and knot comforts.

Mrs. Mary Hollowell was a charming hostess Wednesday evening when she entertained with a dinner party and miscellaneous shower, honoring, Mrs. Hubert Alexander, at the home of Mrs. Ira Clawson in North Jackson street. The appointments for the dining table were carried out in bouquets of spring flowers and the guests included teachers of the Jackson school, where Mrs. Alexander was a teacher, and a few friends. A pleasant social evening was enjoyed after the dinner party.

The members of the Elisha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Homer, spent Wednesday in Shelbyville as the guests of Mrs. C. L. Brown of 18 East Pennsylvania Street. At one o'clock a splendid luncheon was served in the dining room, the tables and rooms being prettily decorated with spring flowers. Preceding the program a short business session was held. Mrs. Gates, the regent, presiding. Responses to the roll call were "Spring Thoughts." Mrs. William Frow gave an original poem. Mrs. Byron Gates gave a review of the D. A. R. magazine and Mrs. Oscar Williams told of her trip to Boston, Mass., Plymouth Rock and Mount Vernon. Flag day will be observed with a picnic dinner for the families with Mr. and Mrs. William Pickrell of near Richland.

The Sunshine Club of Raleigh celebrated Mothers Day Wednesday afternoon, when they entertained with a delightful program at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Gray near Mays. All the members and seven guests were present and the responses to the roll call were "Mother." The feature of the program was the playlet entitled "The Century of Dress," in three parts, Mrs. Augusta Clifton representing the great grandmother; Mrs. Florence Poer, the grandmother; and Mrs. Wilbur Gray the mother. Mrs. Clifton sang "The Old Gray Bonnet," in costume, and Phyllis Ann Baker and Mary Elizabeth Bowles, gave readings. Mrs. Laelia Baker and Mrs. Josia Aiken rendered beautiful solos. As the closing event of the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins entertained with a pitch-in supper Wednesday evening at their home in New Salem honoring the members of the cast of the play, "Hinkey Doodle Town," which has been given in practically every township in the county, and which originated in New Salem. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelso and children, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Norris and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. #### ABOUT 70 PER CENT FOR ROADS, SCHOOLS

$41.49 for roads and $180,697.37 for schools. Of the sum for schools $79,905.65 is for the tuition fund which is used to pay teachers' salaries; $79,468.39 for the special school fund which is for the maintenance of school buildings, and $21,323.33 for the school bonds fund, which is used to pay off school bonds falling due and to pay interest on outstanding bonds.

Of the amount for road purposes $32,843.37 is for gravel road repair which goes to the county highway department for maintenance; $33,569.46 is collected as road tax to be used on township roads, and $93,128.66 is for the road bonds and interest fund, which is used to meet money going to the smaller political interest on outstanding bonds. These are roads built by the townships under the three-mile road law.

Money going to the smaller political divisions of the county is as follows: Township tax, which is used for administrative purposes, $7,746.47; township poor $3,246.52; general fund, which is Rushville city's share of the spring installment, $42,190.66; street tax, $148.08; which is levied exclusively for Glenwood; library tax, $3,691.34; electric light and water works tax, $2,148.30, which is levied in Glenwood and Carthage only, vocational agricultural tax $1,057.41.

The city will also receive $69.90 in delinquent taxes from the previous year when levies were established for various funds, instead of the method now in use. The city levies a general fund tax and appropriates the amounts desired for its various funds.

The county sent to the state the sum of $81,545.78, but $3,239.67 of the amount was not derived from taxation. Common school fund interest going to the state amounted to $2,920.48, permanent endowment fund interest to $201.19 and circuit court docket fees $118.

The amount actually raised by taxation which the state receives is divided as follows: state tax, $13,009.52; benevolent institution fund, $22,127.75; state school fund, $19,997.96; state educational institution fund, $13,720.99; state vocational education fund, $1,374.12; state

soldiers' memorial $1,646.46; agricultural experiment station, $1,097.69; state teachers' pension fund, $4,096.70; Dunes park $548.87; state agricultural board $86.05.

Of the total distributed $4,650.97 was from poll taxes, going for the following: state revenue, $760.27; state schools $760.28; county revenue, $1,520.55; all other revenue, $1,609.87.

McCoy's Keeps Old Folks Feeling Young

Try This New Cod Liver Oil Preparation To Increase Your Strength Vitality and Endurance

Money Back If It Dont Help You.

Why should any old person let feebleness overwhelm them in these enlightened days? Surely everyone knows by this time that Cod Liver Oil contains more vitamins than anything else on earth and is the greatest body builder in the world.

Any physician will tell you that. You'll like to take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—they are sugar coated and as easy to take as candy and they do help old people.

Why not try being years younger again—why not grow stronger in body, in mind in vitality? Why not take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and drop years from your age in 30 days? We believe that a 30 days treatment will make you feel years younger—but at any rate try them for 30 days and if you are not satisfied get your money back—60 tablets—60 cents at F. B. Johnson Co., or Pitman and Wilson, or any progressive druggist. Be sure and get McCoy's—the original and genuine.

Old newspapers for sale, 5c per bundle at Republican office.

OUR ILLUSTRATION

Shows two nerves issuing from the vertebrae of the spinal column. No. 1 is in its normal condition, giving health and vigor to that portion of the body it serves. No. 2 cannot perform its mission, being pinched by a displaced vertebra. It is this impairment of nerve function, that is the cause of nearly every form of disease.

CHIROPRACTIC quickly corrects such impairment, without drugs or instrument, restoring the body to a healthy condition.

Movies

Spectacular Show at Princess

"Sundown," First National's powerful, spectacular feature, opened last night at the Princess theatre.

Since the advent of motion pictures there have been but few that really can be called "great." "Sundown" is one of them and can rightfully take its place beside "The Birth of a Nation," "The Four Horsemen," "Intolerance," and "The Covered Wagon."

There is no one big moment. No clash of physical forces is depended upon to lift the film from the ordinary run of celluloid drama—yet it is so far ahead of the usual "big feature," in entertainment value and for its inspiring and emotion stirring qualities that there is no comparison.

For its theme, the author, Earl Hudson, has taken a page from current history, basing the story on the disintegration of the West of yesterday—the romantic West of story and song.

Laurette Taylor at Castle

When it comes to really first-class comedy our hats are off to Laurette Taylor and the Metro company for their production of "Happiness," which came to the Castle theatre last night. It is an aeon since anything has appeared on the screen so light, deft and amusing as this picture of J. Hartley Manners' play, which comes as sort of a sequel to his famous "Peg O' My Heart."

On the screen "Happiness" outdoes "Peg." It is much smoother, peppier, if that is possible, and the general effect arrives at a more definite conclusion than the earlier picture.

Miss Taylor had established a place entirely her own as the queen of comedienne behind the footlights, now she has won a similar niche in the realm of the cinema. No one we can think of possesses the same amount of personality and fire as this really great actress, and nobody can transfer her art to the screen as well as she. What we are trying to say is that Miss Taylor is superb.
